

Information Station – Truly Outstanding Friendly Service

“Excuse me, where can we taste great food?” “Excuse me, what are the specialty products of this region?” If you have any question during your journey in Taiwan, come to the Information Station and say “Excuse me~” You may be pleasantly surprised!

In order to help self-service travelers to solve their problems via friendly, Taiwanese style service, Tourism Administration, MOTC especially collaborated with friendly stores and service providers throughout Taiwan to establish “Information Stations” to facilitate the visitors in Taiwan.

Arriving at the “Information Station”, you will see the yellow, round “Information Station” sign with black letters. Besides wall maps and friendly travel information services, the station also features Wi-Fi hotspots and QR codes that will guide the visitors to a variety of cloud-based travel services.

“Information Station” incorporates “local characteristics” and “hospitality” into your journey; the aim is to create moving experiences that will attract visitors to come back time and again, so that they can appreciate the beauty of Taiwan and the warm hospitality of her people. Come on, don’t be shy, everyone is invited to make inquiries at the “Information Station”!

Address: No. 8-1, Shengping Road, Taoyuan Village, Yanping Township, Taitung County
Phone: 089-561295
Business Hours: 08:00-17:00
Surrounded by mountains and accompanied by flowing streams, Yanping Township reveals traces of tribal people left in the small town upon closer inspection. Indigenous culture is a characteristic that attracts tourists to visit Yanping. The most renowned seasonal ritual among the Bunun people is the May Ear-Shooting Festival, held annually in the months of April and May. In Hongye Village, there is also a Hongye Little League Memorial Hall, recounting the glory days of the Little League baseball team that once gained worldwide fame. Before departing, visitors can take home some plums and custard apples from the local farms, creating the perfect conclusion to a perfect journey.
